Holiday Room Planning Questions

What belongs to the gathering?

List the room details you want to refresh before guests arrive.

What belongs to the later project?

Keep your ceiling finish ideas and unresolved product questions in a separate list.

What do you need to compare?

Note the colours, textures and samples you want to see in the actual room.

What information is missing?

Ask about the chosen item's material, installation guide and current availability.

Who needs to review the room?

Identify preparation or fixture questions for the appropriate project professional.

What should be confirmed before ordering?

Check the exact item information and delivery details for your order.
